

University of New Mexico School of Law Second Annual Water Policy Seminar
May 20, 2005

New Mexico and The West: Facing Our Water Reality

- 8:00 Registration/Coffee
- 8:30 Welcome
Suellyn Scarnecchia, Dean, University of New Mexico School of Law
Marilyn C. O'Leary, Director, Utton Transboundary Resources Center
- 8:45 Federal Legal Trends: Re-Visiting the Pre-Emption Doctrine – George William Sherk
9:15 Water on Forest Service Lands: Implications – Em Hall
9:45 Questions & Discussion
- 10:00 Break
- 10:15 Federal and State Responses to Drought: The Bottom Line – Denise Fort
10:45 The Effect of Rate Policy on Water Use – Janie Chermak
11:15 Questions & Discussion
- 11:30 The New Mexico Court Rules on Adjudications – Judge Jerald Valentine
12:15 Questions & Discussion
- 12:30 Lunch (included)
- 1:30 Colorado River Drought Responses – Jerome C. Muys
2:15 Questions & Discussion
- 2:30 New Mexico Active Water Resources Management (AWRM) Regulations
The Most Recent Regulations From the OSE – DL Sanders & Fred Abramowitz
- 3:00 Break (15 minutes)
- 3:15 AWRM Continued: Perspectives of Third Parties – Tim De Young, moderator
- An Agricultural Perspective – Tessa Davidson, Attorney at Law
 - Indian Water Rights Perspective – Adrian Oglesby, Law Offices of Les W. Ramirez
 - Perspective of Ranchers, Acequias and Domestic Well Permit Holders – Peter T. White, Attorney at Law
 - Municipal Perspective – Kyle Harwood, City Attorney's Office, Santa Fe
- 4:15 Discussion
- 4:30 Conclusion